I would like to thank my class officers: Shonda Stapleton, Courtney-Barwell Anderson, Delaina Deaton-Phirman, Nicole Kunz-Schickling, and Alyssa Staggs-Vanderpool.

The success of the reunion wouldn't have been possible without them. We look forward to seeing everyone at our 20 year reunion."

Clearly a good looking bunch; time has been good to them. What fun!

Class of 1985

Financial Notes

Please note that when you or your classmates plan a class reunion, please check with the Alumni Association. We may be able to help find people plus several classes actually have money to spend. This is especially true with the classes since 1997. In addition, we can get your info out in the school newsletter, on the web site and on the Kenton County Educational TV Cable Channel.

Class of 1990

Wow how 15 years can really change a person!!!! The Class of 1990 held their 15 year class reunion on October 29, 2005 at Park Place in Taylor Mill's Pride Park. The event was a success. It was amusing to see all the people who have physically changed. Thank goodness for name tags!!

Tonya Timmerding Jones and I, Becky Smith Egan, started planning the event in May of 2005. With months to prepare it was a lot of hard work. Tonya and I met for lunch often to prepare for the event. The biggest problem we faced was finding everyone. Tonya became a member of classmates.com, hopeful to find most classmates. Then we did numerous google searches and found addresses for most people. Thank goodness for the internet. A special thanks to Amy Bachman Optiz, Susan Curtis Kinman, Shannon Neiheisel Braun, Julie Bennett Trimmell, Shelly Meyer Bosse, Katie Stallard Long, and Paul Anderson they were a huge help in searching for classmates.

The evening began at 4 p.m. with the arrival of several classmates. Dinner catered by Pom-pilio's was served at 6 p.m. with our Class of 1990 scrapbook video being aired on both televisions during dinner. Was that comical---my how things change and how big our hair really was.

Some classmates came alone, others brought their significant other and some brought their children. Wow was that neat. Seeing other people's children and how much they resemble their parents. The evening consisted of mingling, cornhole, and a lot of catching up. We had several awards to give away at the end of the evening. Such as: Who has Most Grey Hair, Most Interesting Job, Most Boring Job, Who Drove the Farthest, Who has the Most Kids, Newest Baby Award, Most Divorces, Most Marriages, Who has changed the Most and Who has NOT Changed the Most. Winners were voted by the classmates and winners received a fabulous prize.

The evening ended at 12 a.m. with hopes of seeing each other again in 5 years. Some classmates were interested in meeting every year instead of waiting every 5 years. Everyone seemed to have a great time and enjoyed seeing everyone again. Next reunion I am thinking of mailing the name badges so they can have them on when they walk in the door to save us the embarrassment of not recognizing someone.
