

Eye Of The Eagle

A Newsletter for the Alumni of Scott High School
732 Vincent Drive
Taylor Mill, Kentucky 41015
<http://www.scotthighschoolalumni.org/>

Volume Nine
Issue One
Summer 2012

Reunion News

The reunion season this past year was filled with several amazing events so we've added some pictures for you to enjoy on subsequent pages. The Classes of 1991, 2001, and 2006 all had social events that were fun and entertaining. As this newsletter is written, the class of '82 has a 30th reunion scheduled for Oct. 6 at the Lookout Heights Civic Club. The Class of 1987 has a 25th reunion planned for Brookwood Swim Club on July 21 plus a Cincinnati Reds baseball game. The Class of 1992 will host its 20 year reunion at the Fort Wright Civic Club on Oct 6. The Class of 1997 has all the details set for their reunion weekend with multiple events. The main event will be on Aug. 11 at Leaping Lizard. Molly Malone's will host the 2002 reunion on Aug. 18. The Class of 2006 has already enjoyed an informal reunion on Aug. 12 also at Molly Malone's. The Class of 2007 enjoyed their reunion at Legends on May 19. For additional information on any of these reunions see <http://www.scotthighschoolalumni.org/>.

Enjoying the 2006 Five-Year Reunion

News

Jerry Mohr, who excelled as Scott's cross country, swimming, and track coaches for many years (in addition to being aquatics director), is retiring to spend more time with his family. Jerry will finish the upcoming cross country season before leaving his home at Scott. He has been an integral part of the Scott family and he will be missed. Debbie Hecky, math teacher and National Honor Society sponsor, will retire in the Fall as well. Her work on behalf of Scott students is appreciated. Also on the list are Terri Mitsch, Linda Washnock, and Susan Faris as retirees. Those leaving Scott but not having retired include: John Slone, Brad Carr, Dave Campbell, and Tim Boggs. Congratulations to John Slone who became a principal elsewhere and Dave Campbell who became the assistant principal at Woodland.

There was a Girls Softball alumni game on July 14. Pictures will follow in our next newsletter. The Boys Soccer Alumni has plans to play a match on August 4 at 5 pm. There will be a dinner after the match.

Our Graduate News has tidbits of information about our graduates. If you have information you would like to share, please visit on www.scotthighschoolalumni.org and email directly to scotthighalumni@gmail.com

Rust Roast/Field Dedication

The multi-class reunion with the roast of Al Rust entailed socializing, lots of music ,dancing , food, beverages and all around fun!

These roasts are special. Expect another in 2013 or 2014. Nominate your teacher choices at scotthighalumni@gmail.com

Class of 1991

'91 Class enjoyment at The Grandview

Golf Outing

The Association has made improvements such as incorporating the organization and creating the association's website (scotthighschoolalumni.org). The Alumni Association has an active presence on Facebook. The Board has an alumni golf outing at the Kenton County Willows Golf Course for Sept. 15 at a very reasonable price. Come out and have some fun! See www.scotthighschoolalumni.org for more information.

Class of 2001 Reunion

A great time was had by all at Molly Malone's

Scott Girls Alumni Soccer Players at the alumni match.

Graduate News

Jimmy Knipp ('80) it is sad to note that Jimmy has passed away.

Adelaide Martin McManus ('81) has lost her battle with cancer. Our condolences. See www.scotthighschoolalumni.org for more information.

Amy Beckham Foster ('82) married Kelly Foster ('84) in June. Our best wishes.

Robert (Robbie) Baker ('83) graduated from ECU in Business Administration, is married to Christy with two daughters, Meagan who is 9 and Ryan who is 6.

Blaine Holtkamp ('84) attended Morehead State, moved to Los Angeles to work with Disney MGM, and is currently at Twentieth Century.

Amy Lirely ('85) graduated from NKU with a B.S. in Biology and her R.N. degree.

Stephanie Slater Roberts ('86) graduated from U.L. in Industrial Engineering, lives in Louisville, and works at Universal Woods Incorporated.

Matt Logsdon ('87) received a AA in Biblical Studies from Christian Christian University, a B.A. in Literature from NKU and an M.A. in Secondary Education from UK. He married Tresine Tatum on Nov. 16, 2001 and teaches at Henry Clay High School.

Amy Pohlgeers ('88) graduated with a B.S. in Industrial Relations from NKU and has been at Procter and Gamble for 17 years.

Ritchie Day ('88) has unfortunately departed. He will be missed. See scotthighschoolalumni.org for more.

Brian Underwood ('89) received his B.A. and M.Ed from NKU, is married to Susan, has two children (Solana 5 and Braylen 2.5, plus currently teaches at Milford Senior High School.

Cathy Walker Hurley ('90) graduated from NKU, married Joe Hurley. They have a son, Danny (4) and she owns Talk 1, a full service advertising agency.

Doug Buerger ('91) Received a degree in Aeronautical Engineering and is working on his Masters in Systems Engineering in the Naval Postgraduate School.

Shawna Southwick Fox ('92) received a B.A. degree from U.C. She is working on her graduate degree in Public Health Education.

Jeff Wagner ('92) has passed away. Our sympathies to the family and friends. See scotthighschoolalumni.org for more.

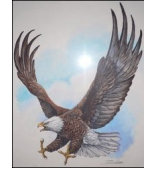

Walter Hyden ('93) had an accident take his life. How unfortunate. See scotthighschoolalumni.org for more info.

Julie Owens ('94) graduated from Beckfield College and then NKU for a BCN in 1997. She currently works for St. Elizabeth Healthcare as an L&D nurse.

Margaret Hoffman Wiggins ('95) earned her degree in Special Education from NKU. Teaching at Ryland, she is married to Randy and their children are Thomas, a fifth grader, Carson and Catherine, 6 years old, and Allison, who is 6 months old.

Graduate News

Shauna Yeager Dynes ('96) received her B.A. in 2000 from ECU in Political Science, married Michael Dynes, and they have three kids; Noah (10), Gabriel (8), and Avery (3).

Amy Moore ('97) studied business administration at Thomas More and got her education certification at NKU. Currently is working at Fidelity and is engaged to Joe Bulach.

Robby Messmer ('98) graduated from Western Kentucky University in Organizational Communications, married Alissa Vice, has a son (Gentry), and works at 2020 Companies.

Danielle Verst Ashley ('99) graduated from Thomas More in 2004, married Zach, has 3 children (Ana, Elli, and Olivia) and is expecting a fourth girl in August.

Amanda Robinson ('00) completed her B.S. degree in Biology from N.K.U. She has just completed her first year of pharmacy school.

T.J. Phillips ('00) married Michelle on June 23rd. See scotthighschoolalumni.org for details.

Tristan Berry ('01) has departed. Our heartfelt regrets on his passing.

Stephanie Goetz ('02) graduated from Centre College in 2006, received an MPH at Columbia University and followed that with an MPA from also from Columbia. She worked with the Peace Corps, international development, and currently works with Charity:Water.

Chelsea Cooper ('03) graduated from Thomas More with degrees in Psychology and Sociology. She is an addictions counselor.

Kendall Blair ('04) is a reporter for WCPO. television after having worked in the Atlanta Market last year.

Tim Murray ('05) graduated with a B.S from ECU, got his MS from Murray in '11 and is an athletic trainer in Central Kentucky.

Kortni Dukes Danks ('06) just received her Master's in Elementary Education and was hired to teach at Kenton Elementary.

Brittany Buechel Brown ('07) graduated from Thomas More with a B.S. in Nursing in 2011 and married Josh Brown on June 18, 2012, in Gatlinburg.

Sarah Houseman ('08) graduated from UK with a degree in Political Science and will attend law school this Fall.

Matt Battista ('08) is engaged to marry Mylia Hanks in November.

Jacklyn Sampson ('08) graduated from NKU with a B.A. and has begun pharmacy school.

Jerrica Maddox ('08) married Drew Harris on July 7.

Curtis Spencer ('08) has a degree in Business Management from Morehead, married Alicia, and has been deployed to Afghanistan.

Alumni Information and Services

The alumni association provides a locator service, reunion help, special events and class news through scotthighschoolalumni.org, the "Scott High School Eagles Alumni" page on Facebook and the newsletter. Members are asked to send news as it's available. We would like to keep up with your changes, jobs, graduations, births, weddings, etc. Please encourage others to join; the larger the membership, the more we can do!

Note to Members:

The athletic department has approved alumni association members attending all Scott regular season athletic events at no charge. You must present your membership card which proves you have paid your dues for this year.

Graduate Fun

The Association provides a website (www.scotthighschoolalumni.org), plus a strong presence on Facebook and Twitter. The Board produced a multi-class reunion/roast and assists with class reunions, social events, improvements such as incorporating the organization and creating the association's website. Support is given for charitable causes and alumni games. See www.scotthighschoolalumni.org for more information.

Membership Form(or for change of Address)

First Name

Maiden Name

Last Name

Street Address

City

State

Zip

E-mail address

Graduation year

Write your news on the bottom of this form. Send $15 First time Dues or $10 renewal dues to Scott Alumni Association.

Are you engaged?

If so to whom?

Did you go on to school?

Where?

Are you married?

Spouse's name

How many kids?

Names of kids?

Where do you work?

Scott H.S. Alumni Assoc.
732 Vincent Drive
Taylor Mill, Kentucky 41015